Liberal Studies Committee
Mitchell D. Klett, Chair
Recommendation of the Committee
First Reading: December 11, 2007

The Liberal Studies Committee recommends that the Senate

Recommendation 1: Add HN 362 (Cultural Food Patterns) to the Courses fulfilling the World Cultures Requirement

Rationale

The Course Review Subcommittee reviewed HN 362 (Cultural Food Patterns) and found that it met the requirements for World Cultures.

- Understanding cultural diversity
- Understanding the relationship of the individual to society and its culture and institutions
- Understanding different cultures within local, national, and/or global communities
- Understanding the role of the fine and performing arts and the humanities in shaping and expressing a culture's values and ideals
- Understanding natural phenomena and the physical world

The full committee agreed and voted in favor of designating this course as fulfilling the recommended World Cultures Requirements.

Cost

There is no cost attached to the passage of this recommendation.

Implementation of the Recommendations

This recommendation should be implemented for the 2008 Fall Semester.
